Mountain View High School is proud to recognize Monserrat Hernandez Estevez as our February 2024 Student of the Month.

Mountain View High School is proud to honor Monserrat Hernandez Estevez as our February Student of the Month. With a passion for both the arts and community involvement, Monse has made a lasting impact on campus through various roles and activities.

As a student leader in the MVHS Ambassadors program, Monse shines as a committed member of the Multilingual Learners Committee. Monse's dedication extends further as the co-president of the MEChA club, showcasing leadership and advocacy skills. However, Monse's talents don't stop there; she brings the school to life as the camera operator for the Next Week Now broadcast announcements, creating a dynamic and engaging atmosphere for the MVHS community. In the realm of performing arts, Monse has left an indelible mark, serving as the camera operator for the last school play and currently spearheading projections for the upcoming spring musical.

Beyond the school walls, Monse's heart for service is evident in volunteering at the Mini Cat Town, a cat adoption center. Balancing this with a love for photography, especially capturing the beauty of nature, Monse finds joy in moments shared with friends, or spontaneous photo sessions. An avid reader of fiction and poetry, Monse also values personal creativity, spending time writing, drawing, and listening to music.

Reflecting on the best memories at MVHS, Monse cherishes the experience of working on the last play, their last summer as a student worker at MVHS, and their fulfilling role as an ambassador. Building connections with peers and contributing to positive changes in the school community through the Ambassadors program are highlights that Monse holds dear.

Looking towards the future, Monse plans to pursue a career in film following graduation. Despite uncertain plans, there's a desire to explore the roots in the Dominican Republic before embarking on the exciting journey of college life. Monse's passion for learning, community spirit, and commitment to artistic expression make her a well-deserving Student of the Month at MVHS.
