

Parth Agarwala

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Mountain View High School

February 2025

Mountain View High School is proud to recognize Parth Agarwala as the Student of the Month for February. His passion for the arts, commitment to his craft, and engagement in the school community make him a standout student and an inspiration to his peers.

From the moment he stepped onto the MVHS campus, Parth has embraced every opportunity to grow as a performer and a leader. As a dedicated member of the Theatre Department, he regularly takes center stage in the fall plays and spring musicals, bringing energy and talent to every performance. His love for the performing arts extends beyond the stage—he is also involved in the Dance Spectrum program, collaborates on Freestyle Academy student films, and is a proud member of the Iwata Exchange program and Ambassadors program, where he helps create a welcoming and spirited school environment.

Outside of school, Parth continues to immerse himself in the world of acting. Over the past year, he has taken classes in San Francisco, worked on film projects in the city, and even connected with a casting director in Hollywood to gain insight into the entertainment industry. His dedication to his craft is evident in his drive to constantly improve and expand his experience. Beyond acting, he treasures his time with friends and family, often sharing his love for movies through his Instagram, where he posts film recommendations for others to enjoy.

Parth's favorite memories at MVHS include the excitement of Homecoming Week, where the campus comes alive with energy; ASB spirit weeks, where he fully embraces each day's themed outfits; and Spartans Pause events, which provide a chance to step back, relax, and enjoy the moment amidst a busy schedule.

Looking ahead, Parth plans to attend an arts school to further refine his skills as a performer. His dream schools include Juilliard, NYU, and USC, with hopes of studying in New York or Los Angeles, two of the country's biggest entertainment hubs. His love for New York City runs deep—he would go there any day of the year if given the chance!

Parth Agarwala's journey at MVHS is a testament to his creativity, passion, and determination. Whether on stage, in film, or as a leader in the school community, he continues to inspire those around him. We are proud to celebrate him as our Student of the Month!
