

Erin Alexander
STUDENT OF THE MONTH
Mountain View High School
November 2019

Senior

Mountain View High School is proud to present Erin Alexander as November's Student of the Month.

Erin is an exemplary Mountain View student who is taking a challenging course load. she is enrolled in AP Literature, AP Spanish Literature, AP Government and Macroeconomics, AP Calculus, and AP Psychology.

For the past two years, Erin has also played the trumpet in wind ensemble, balanced difficult classes with a challenging extracurricular. She has also been on the TEDx team for 4 years, helping run the student speaker series that we have on campus. This year, Erin is taking on the leadership role of Executive Producer; She hopes that this year's event, titled "Breaking Barriers" will continue to inspire and broaden the perspectives of our student body and connect them with the community.

Outside of school, Erin is a STEAM team member working with students at Theuerkauf Elementary; along with her role as a Unidos tutor assisting overworked teachers to help ensure that kids will graduate from Crittenden Middle School.

On top of all of this already incredibly busy schedule, Erin is a member of the MVLA ECNL soccer team, where she has been co-captain and starting center back since freshman year.

In the free time that she has, Erin enjoys hiking, photography and exploring new places with friends. She also spends time giving back to the local programs such as CSMA that sparked her interests as a child.

Congratulations, Erin Alexander, Mountain View High School November Student of the Month.
