

Iman Zia
STUDENT OF THE MONTH
Mountain View High School
January 2024

Mountain View High School is proud to recognize Iman Zia our January 2024 Student of the Month.

Iman Zia is an exemplary student at Mountain View High School, embodying the spirit of leadership, compassion, and dedication, making her an excellent choice for MVHS' student of the month. She is actively involved in various clubs, showcasing her commitment to both academic and community pursuits.

As the secretary of the Muslim Student Association, Iman has demonstrated strong leadership skills. Her recent efforts in organizing a school vigil to commemorate lives lost in the Gaza-Israel conflict highlight Iman's dedication to fostering unity and support in the face of adversity. Iman not only spoke eloquently at the vigil but also collaborated with community speakers who shared personal stories of loss, amplifying the message of solidarity. Additionally, her outreach to the JSU reflects Iman's inclusive approach to creating a sense of hope and togetherness within the school community.

Outside of school, Iman engages in diverse activities that showcase her talents and passions. A 2nd-degree black belt in taekwondo, she exemplifies discipline and determination. Her artistic flair is evident in her love for painting, a creative outlet that allows her to express herself. Furthermore, Iman's commitment to community service is demonstrated through volunteering with the unhoused community, reflecting her compassion and dedication to making a positive impact beyond the school gates.

Iman's journey at Mountain View High School has been marked by memorable experiences and positive relationships. Grateful for the support of administrators, teachers, and peers, she cherishes the friendships forged and the camaraderie experienced at MVHS, with homecoming festivities and the joy of playing badminton on the school junior varsity team among Iman's fondest memories.

Looking towards the future, Iman has set ambitious goals. Inspired by the educators and mentors at MVHS, she plans to pursue higher education in the UK with a focus on entering the teaching field. Iman sees education as a powerful tool for empowerment and societal progress, embodying the values instilled at Mountain View High School.

In recognition of Iman's outstanding contributions to the school community, both academically and socially, she is truly deserving of the title "Mountain View High School January Student of the Month."
