Congratulations to Pedro Ruiz, Los Altos High School's November Student of the Month! We are honored to recognize him for his dedication and contributions to his activities.

Pedro has been a part of the Latino Student Union and the AVID Program for the last four years. For LSU, he was the treasurer during sophomore year and secretary during his junior year. Pedro has helped organize and MC events like the Latino Awards, the Dia de los Muertos Celebration, and the Cinco de Mayo celebration. He really enjoys helping the Latino community show off their culture and achievements to the school.

Pedro has been a member of the Student Community Leaders for the past two years. He is currently the co-president of the Jumpstart Committee. Pedro has been responsible for preparing mentors for freshman orientation, while also organizing events throughout the school year like the ice cream social and the upcoming Fall Festival.

Outside of school, Pedro spends most of his time working. He currently works over 20 hours each week as a busboy and dishwasher at Marie Callender's. In the past, he has also worked at the Pasta Market and as a gardener, but Pedro has had to pause these jobs to focus on school and his other activities.

In school, Pedro's favorite subject is history and Pedro loves his AP US Government class. He would love to pursue a degree in political science in college but is definitely open to other career paths. Pedro has also received the AVID Honor Roll for his achievements in academics. Pedro is very involved in and out of the classroom, and for that we are proud to present him as Los Altos High School's November Student of the Month. Congratulations!
